Greetings

People ask me from time to time, "How's it going at the bookstore?" They are curious about independent bookstore ownership, I suppose. I say that our success is all because of our team and the support of our customers. As a staff, we do a lot of work behind the scenes and more often than not there is unfinished business from one day to the next. We rely on each other heavily. The nuts and bolts of bookselling work is varied and can be downright joyful if you love paperwork! With all the attention to detail, we also take time to process....

whether it's creating a new window display, updating our website, taking a tricky special order or rearranging shelves to make books pop out. What we enjoy the most is recommending the right books for you. And wow! What a year it's been of doing just that! Allow me this opportunity to let out a gasp of gratitude to all of you for supporting Volume One as we tweak and improve our selection of books. Every time a customer special orders a book new to the store or lets us know how we are doing, I'm over the moon. Feedback is important. When we order books for our shelves we often think of a specific person in our community. This newsletter is a reflection of our customers' tastes. We hope you get a lot out of our book buying this year. It comes from years of knowing authors and carefully judging what will be the next trend. Jennifer, our newsletter editor, said there's so many great titles for 2017 and hoped that we didn't have to eliminate any from her initial list. I am happy to cut my message short and allow the books to speak for themselves.

Thank you all and the best of the winter season to you!

Sonia

Fiction

Artemis by Andy Weir. From the author of The Martian comes an irresistible new near-future thriller: a heist story, set on the moon. HC $36.00

Lost in September by Kathleen Winter. Long-awaited new novel (Annabel was shortlisted for the Giller and Orange prizes) in which Winter takes a short and intensely personal incident in the life of the historical James Wolfe, and reimagines him in the present day. HC $29.95

The Rules of Magic by Alice Hoffman. Prequel to her bestselling Practical Magic. Susanna Owens knows that her 3 children are dangerously unique. The children begin to understand who they really are, and try to escape the family curse. PB $22.00

The Only Café by Linden MacIntyre. Giller Prize-winner returns with a timely and gripping story in which a son tries to solve the mystery of his father's death—a man who could not forget his troubled past in his native Lebanon. HC $34.00

A Reckoning by Linda Spalding. Moving and troubling account of a family's breakdown. Perfect companion to Spalding's earlier bestseller, The Purchase. HC $32.00

The Red-Haired Woman by Orhan Pamuk. From the Turkish Nobel Prize-winner, an absorbing tale of fathers and sons, tradition and modernity. HC $34.95

The Golden House by Salman Rushdie. When the aristocratic Golden family moves into Greenwich Village, their past is a mystery. The narrator is an aspiring filmmaker, who decides to make the Golden family his subject. He gains the trust of this strange family, even as their secrets gradually unfold. HC $34.95

First Snow, Last Light by Wayne Johnston. Epic family mystery, set in Newfoundland, with larger-than-life characters, including a reappearance of Sheilagh Fielding, one of fiction's most memorable characters. HC $34.95

Dunbar by Edward St Aubyn. Part of the Hogarth Shakespeare series. St Aubyn gives us his own King Lear, a sharp, satirical novel of loyalty, betrayal, corporate greed, and the wisdom that shines through the accumulating indignities of age. PB $22.95

A Column of Fire by Ken Follett. (Third in the Kingsbridge series) In 1558, as power shifts precariously between Catholics and Protestants, high principles clash with friendship, loyalty, and love. HC $45.00

That's My Baby by Frances Itani. New Deseronto novel, set amid the tensions of WWII. A young woman, adopted as a baby, is determined to uncover the mysteries of her identity. HC $32.99

Origin by Dan Brown. In his trademark style, Brown interweaves codes, science, religion, history, art, and architecture into his new novel, set in Spain. HC $38.50

To the Bright Edge of the World by Eowyn Ivey. Atmospheric tale of adventure, love, and survival, set in Alaska in the winter of 1885, with Col. Allen Forrester leading a band of men on an expedition that has been deemed impossible. His wife, Sophie, is on her own in Vancouver facing her own challenges. PB $22.49

The Tiger's Prey by Wilbur Smith and Tom Harper. Another chapter in the saga of the seafaring Tom Courtney, set in the 18th century and packed with action, violence, romance, and adventure. PB $24.99

Fiction continued

The Music Shop by Rachel Joyce. Perfectly pitched novel—a love story and a journey through music, and about how music can bring us together. HC $32.00

The Prague Sonata by Bradford Morrow. In the early days of this century, a young musicologist is given pages of a worn and weathered original sonata manuscript, but there is no indication of who the composer might be. He sets out to search for the remaining movements of the sonata and to uncover its story. HC $38.95

Year One: Chronicles of the One, Book 1 by Nora Roberts. Epic of hope and horror, chaos and magic, and a journey that will unite a desperate group of people to fight the battle of their lives. HC $36.00

Three Daughters of Eve by Elif Shafak. Timely new novel by bestselling Turkish author shows the tensions that simmer between East and West, religious and secular, rich and poor. HC $36.00

Sourdough by Robin Sloan. San Francisco software engineer inherits a bakery's sourdough bread starter with instructions to keep it alive. Soon, she becomes a baker. PB $23.99

Future Home of the Living God by Louise Erdrich. Chilling dystopian novel which paints a portrait of a young woman fighting for her life and that of her unborn child against oppressive forces that manifest in the wake of a cataclysmic event. PB $21.99

The Shoe on the Roof by Will Ferguson. Startling and funny story of a psychological experiment gone wrong, in a critique of our modern world, from a Giller Prize-winner. HC $32.00

Fools and Mortals by Bernard Cornwell. Dramatic and new departure for Cornwell: this takes us into the heart of the Elizabethan era. PB $22.99

The Dead Husband Project by Sarah Meehan Sirk. For readers of George Saunders and Heather O'Neill, a rich and inventive collection of exquisite short stories by a major newcomer to Canadian literature. PB $22.00

Humour

Opportunity Knox: Twenty Years of Award-Losing Humour Writing by Jack Knox. Another collection of Knox's best-loved humour columns. PB $19.95

The Beaverton Presents Glorious and/or Free: The True History of Canada by Luke Gordon Field and Alex Huntley. Part mock-history, part fake scrapbook, this is a satirical stab at our national myths and legends, from Canada's most biting source of satire. PB $24.95

Collected Tarts and Other Indelicacies by Tabatha Southey. Loyal readers of The Globe and Mail, Elle Canada, and Maclean's will be delighted to see this book, which showcases the many lessons learned from more than a decade of column-writing. She has covered the most pressing issues of our time, from the struggles of having an unusually handsome PM to the impending dystopic future faced by the Trump United States and Casino Resort. PB $24.95

Stephen Colbert's Midnight Confessions by Stephen Colbert. Illustrated collection, based on Colbert's popular segment on The Late Show, revealing his most shameful secrets. HC $26.99

The Book of Lists: Revised and Updated and Even More Canadian by Ira Basen and Jane Farrow. Fun, revealing and addictive, this looks at curious and unconventional aspects of Canadian culture, identity, politics and people. If you're interested in the Romantic Musings of 4 Canadian Prime Ministers, look no further. PB $26.00

Canadianity: Tales from the True North Strong and Freezing by Jeremy Taggart and Jonathan Torrens. From their hugely successful podcast, the guys share a collection of showbiz tales and everyday anecdotes, with a heaping helping of irreverence. PB $22.99

Biographies

Chasing Smoke: A Wildfire Memoir by Aaron Williams. Enthralling and timely insider account of how a fire season unfolds in B.C.'s hot, dry summers, steep terrain and population density in forested areas. It's an intensely physical, high-adrenalin life. PB $22.95

What Happened by Hillary Clinton. For the first time, Clinton reveals what she was thinking and feeling during one of the most unpredictable presidential elections in history—what it was like to run against Trump, the mistakes she made, how she has coped with such a devastating loss, and how she found the strength to pick herself up afterwards. HC $39.99

It's All Relative: Adventures Up and Down the World's Family Tree by A.J. Jacobs. Fans of The Know-It-All will enjoy Jacobs's journey over seven continents to build the biggest family tree in history, while unearthing genetic links to Hollywood actresses and real-life scoundrels. HC $36.00

Autumn by Karl Ove Knausgaard. A love letter to his unborn daughter, this is for every reader who thinks about what the world has in store for their child; the first book in a deeply personal and humane quartet, The Seasons. HC $36.00
